

Programme

Five Nations Conference

10th & 11th September, 2014

9th September, 2014

Evening arrival for delegates.

10th September

9:00	Registration
9:45	Welcome by Karin Phillips, Deputy Director, Community Safety Division, Welsh Government.
10:00	Rt Hon Carwyn Jones AM, First Minister of Wales - keynote address.
10:30	Plenary – complexity and the changing nature of the youth justice cohort to be chaired by Dusty Kennedy, Head of YJB Cymru <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Gareth Jones, Association of YOT Managers▪ Dr Claire Lightowler, Director for the Centre of Youth and Criminal Justice, University of Strathclyde.▪ Dr Nicola Carr, Queens University, Belfast
11:45	Refreshments
12:15	Workshop 1 (five running consecutively in each of the allocated slots – please see the workshop schedule)
13:15	Lunch
14:15	Workshop 2 (see schedule)
15:15	Refreshments
15:45	Routes in and out of offending – chaired by Julie Fox, Assistant Chief Inspector, HM Inspectorate of Probation. <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Professor Ursula Kilkelly, University College, Cork: Children’s rights and complexity▪ Professor Gordon Harold, University of Sussex: Childhood attachment and trauma and its impact on anti social behaviour▪ Professor Stephanie Van Goozen, University of Cardiff: How can neuropsychological assessments help to understand and reduce youth crime?
17:00	Workshop 3 (see schedule)
18:00	Session Ends

19:30	Conference Dinner
-------	-------------------

11th September

9:00	Welcome and introductions for day two, to be chaired by John Wrangham, YJB Board Member for Wales
9:15	Workshop 4 (see schedule)
10:15	Refreshments
10:45	Young people’s views of youth justice – a discussion chaired by the Youth Forum of the Media Academy, Cardiff. The Media Academy works with children and young people who may need a little extra support.
11:45	Plenary discussion –reflections from each of the jurisdictions chaired by Reg Kilpatrick, Director, Local Government and Public Service Department, Welsh Government. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ England – Adrian Stretch, Acting Deputy Director of Operations, the Youth Justice Board (YJB) for England and Wales. ▪ Northern Ireland - Paula Jack, CEO Northern Ireland Youth Justice Agency. ▪ Scotland - Tom McNamara – Head of Youth Justice and Children’s Hearings. ▪ Republic of Ireland - Michelle Shannon, National Director, Irish Youth Justice Service. ▪ Wales – Dusty Kennedy, Head of YJB Cymru.
12:30	Lunch and close