

Child Care in Practice Journal and Early Years – The Organisation for Young Children Invitation to One Day International Event

Saturday 15 October 9am - 4pm Canal Court Hotel, Newry

Join us for a celebration of good practice in early years settings across Ireland and views from colleagues in USA

You will hear from outstanding keynote speakers who have championed children's rights, researched the underlying factors in discrimination, considered and promoted best practice across diverse cultures and societies internationally and developed models for understanding and appreciating each other's models of the world.

You cannot afford to miss this scintillating event

Keynotes addresses on topical themes by:-

- Professor Paul Connolly: Queens University: Diversity and Social Inclusion in the Early Years
- Jillian van Turnhout: Former Irish Senator and Children's Rights advocate: Evolving Identities in a Changing World
- Ernest Hooper: Tampa Bay Tribune : Soldiers for Society: The Invaluable Role of Childcare Educators
- Siobhan Fitzpatrick: CEO Early Years Organisation : Starting Early - Fostering a Culture of Respecting Difference
- Lynne Peyton: Child Care Consultant - A Practical Model for Appreciating Differences

Plus : A range of interactive workshops showcasing opportunities for supporting children, including :-

- Children Living in Direct Provision
- Children with Disabilities
- Children from Diverse Cultures
- Family Support
- Managing and overcoming discrimination effectively

Featuring a Skype link up with our partner organisation in Florida

Child Care in Practice

Quick Registration

(Please complete and send to Cait Morgan, Child Care in Practice, 6 College Park, SSESU, Queens University, Belfast, BT7 1LP)

Name: _____

Email Address: _____ Contact phone: _____

Company/Organisation: _____

Workshop Preference : _____

Postal Address (for invoice/receipt): _____

Cheque included (£20 or €25 made out to Child Care in Practice): ☐

Cheque/payment to follow: ☐