

The Parental Participation Project

- Gives Parents a Voice
- An opportunity for parents to be listened to
- CYPSP direct the parental participation
- Raises awareness of the role of parental participation within CYPSP

Parents are experts by experience and it is fundamental to engage effectively with parents to ensure successful parental participation across a variety of environments.

If you would like to know more about the Parental Participation Project and engaging with Parents please get in touch with our Parental Engagement Coordinator, Lynn Heatley by email at lynnh@parentingni.org

