

‘Who is Holding Baby?’ Event – Infant Mental Health Week: June 2025

Funded by the Public Health Agency, the 4th annual event aimed to raise awareness of Infant Mental Health Awareness Week (9th-15th June 2025), focusing on this year’s theme, “Who is Holding Baby?”

Statutory, community and voluntary services including members of each Locality Planning Groups all came together under one roof to provide information stands to show-case a flavour of support services and programmes available throughout the Western Trust. Services included Family NSPCC, NWRC, Newpin, Surestart, Toybox, Aurora Counselling, Angel Eyes, Aware NI, Barnardos, Mindwise, Healthy Living Centres, Public Health Agency, Early Years Providers, Tiny Life, Dry Arch Centre, Altram, Rainbow Family Centre and the Fostering Network.

To mark the week, and draw the public’s attention to the importance of the First 1001 Days, Fermanagh and Omagh District Council lit up their landmark buildings.

Next year’s IMH celebration will take place in June 2026 hosted in the Manor House, Fermanagh.
