Apologies/ Previous minutes	Apologies were noted.  Previous minutes from September 2016 were agreed
Action Plan/ Key Priorities	The group identified the following areas for consideration over the coming year: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Accessing services relating to young peoples' mental health. Conference in Newry through Newry LPG aims to address this and schools in South Armagh have been invited.</li> <li>• Young People and Anti-Social behaviour where PSNI do not have a 'footprint'. It was noted that the losing youth workers within the area due to funding issues would be detrimental. Example: Programme for 30 young men in Jonesborough ending.</li> <li>• Online Bullying/Internet Safety, particularly supporting young people who have experienced</li> </ul>

	adverse internet activity. PSNI have a training package which can be delivered on request. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Supporting groups with a BME background/identity</li> </ul> It was agreed for a sub group to meet on 24/4/17 with the aim to explore co-ordinating summer activities in the Newtownhamilton area.	DC, TMCD, AS, DO'S and SS to attend. Darren to contact Wayne Morris, EA Outreach Worker, for EA summer activities.
Who is missing from the LPG?	Representation from BME communities: Association of Bulgarian Community Education group to be invited to next LPG meeting. Clanrye have no representation on LPG – Darren to contact Dara O'Hagan	Taucher to contact ABCD Darren to contact Clanrye
Member agency update	PSNI provided an update on Internet Safety Training The PSNI will be rolling out a Cyber Safety programme focusing on 3 different strands <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Primary School Level</li> <li>- Secondary School Level</li> <li>- Parents</li> </ul> The presentations can be delivered within a school or youth setting and are tailored packages based on the audience.
